Overnight Programming

Endicott's campus presents unique opportunities for a variety of uses, such as seminars, sport camps, retreats, music and dance groups, high school or college programs, and more.

Choose from an array of housing options, from traditional residence halls to suite/apartment or hotel-style spaces—available from June to mid-August. Accommodations are centrally located and within walking distance to meeting facilities, athletic fields, and dining locations, as well as outdoor areas for recreation or relaxation, woodland walking trails, and three private beaches.

Overnight guests can enjoy a variety of meal choices in our food court-style dining hall, as well as customizable catering options for private events.

Youth Programs

Our on-campus facilities provide opportunities for programs in leadership, visual and performing arts, sport camps and clinics, and academics. From athletic fields to science labs, positive youth development can be achieved in a safe and fun environment. Our convenient location makes traveling to Boston, Salem, Gloucester, and other North Shore destinations easy for off-site excursions and field trips.

Social Events

Stunning and unique with the Atlantic Ocean just footsteps away. Enjoy a work party by the sea!

From small gatherings to large gala affairs, Endicott offers a variety of settings for your next social event.

- Finish your occasion with dinner on our oceanside lawn, or boost your team spirit during a casual BBQ in our rustic post-and-beam lodge.
- Smaller groups will find the historic Misselwood House ideal, as it lends itself perfectly to intimate gatherings and cocktail parties.
- For larger group events and outings, our tent, which is available from May through the middle of October, boasts a stunning setting with panoramic views of the North Shore.
